KPFK SWITCHBOARD
(818) 985-2711

9 AM to 5 PM, Monday - Friday

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list.

If your request to have your name and address not given to other organizations has already been entered in our computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Alan Fong

Dear listeners,

I want to thank all of you who have made a recent contribution to KPFK. If you joined as a first-time subscriber, welcome aboard. If you've renewed your sponsorship, thank you for signing on again. And if you gave an additional gift in response to our direct mail appeals, special thanks for sustaining us in our time of need. Though we began the summer with some apprehension about our cash flow, you responded magnificently to our appeals. Thank you for honoring us with your support.

Unfortunately, our real income seems to be peaking. While our on-air fundraising earns pledges, our ability to collect on those promises leaves something to be desired. As a result, we won't be growing in any significant way, at least for the next few months, until the present revenue picture becomes more clear. Moreover, the continuing cutbacks in federal funds for public radio (which comes in the form of money to match your contributions) will give us a smaller total income for this fiscal year.

While I'm on the subject of dollar daze, please know that KPFK's subscription rates will be increased as of January 1, 1990. Our staff has not finally decided on the specific amount, but we're looking at a 25% hike in the $20, $40 and $100 subscription rates. This will be the first increase in more than five years; and it will make some headway against the inflation in our expenses, including electricity, phones, paper & printing and health benefits for our employees.

Meanwhile, there are some items in our budget which are affected by our income plateau. Here's the story in brief.

The Folio which you have received has become a bimonthly publication, until time, money and a good plan allow us more flexibility. We will, in the meanwhile, save money for producing and posting the program guide by publishing it every other month.

We will not be able to spend money for the upkeep of our building or to make equipment purchases for our studios and programmers.

The good news is that we are able to pay for a simple cost of living salary increase for our employees. They deserve a raise! If there are any gripes about this, please address them to me. Just know that it's downright embarrassing to offer people the wages we do which I believe are low, even for non-profit radio.

And the good news continues because wonderful programming is coming your way in the months ahead. I'm particularly proud of our efforts on the reading of The Grapes of Wrath, which is a project headed up by volunteers Cindy Friedman and John Chartrand. Our thanks to all those artists who gave of their time in this production, which will be broadcast this Thanksgiving Weekend.

Though the present may not be the ideal time to recruit for a new Folio editor, there is a challenge in every crisis. We do have a quarter-time opening for a responsible person with desktop publishing skills; and openings for a half-time administrative assistant; a half-time switchboard operator/receptionist and a chief engineer who works on a contract basis. We're extending the application deadlines for the administrative assistant and the receptionist jobs, to October 27; the deadline for the Folio editor opening is October 6; and the chief engineer position will be held open until it is filled. If you're interested in any of these positions, please call for information or send a resume to me at KPFK, 3729 Cahuenga Blvd. West, North Hollywood, CA, 91604.

Let me try to summarize this report in the following way. KPFK's employees are a hard-working and dedicated staff. They deserve your support and they have earned their raises. Our job openings will bring fresh blood into the station. And those of us who remain will know enough history to recall times when red ink washed over rose colored visions. When people ask how I'm doing these days, the answer comes with a wry smile: working here is the most honest dollar I've ever earned. Please know that your sponsorship of KPFK is the most efficient dollar spent in radio today.

After six months in the General Manager's chair, I've shared enough tears and laughter to know that listener-sponsored, free-speech radio lives as a grasp in search of its reach. I know that we take on the big issues by choice and are sometimes relentless in our pursuit of them. We're committed to exploring freedom, race relations, politics, health and the environment. But the glue that holds people together — courtesy, humor and civility — too often occur as after thoughts. I wonder about our human face and I feel lucky to have this concern. Here's to a life in the balance.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Wednesdays October 25 & November 1 8:00 PM

NELSON MANDELA: ONE OF AFRICA'S NOBLEST SONS-This is an encore presentation of Pacifica's oral history of Mandela's life and the anti-apartheid struggle.

Part 1 - The Early Years -Mrs. Zodwa Leaby Dotwana, Nelson Mandela's sister, and Mandela biographers Mary Benson and Fatima Meer describe Mandela's upbringing in the rural outreaches of the Transkei.

Part 2 - Law Practice and Run-Ins with the Law -Nelson Mandela was one of the first black lawyers in South Africa, and was a master of oratory to the point that the courts were always filled to capacity where he argued a case.

Part 3 - Life in Prison, Winnie and the Mandela Family -Robben Island Prison has been described as "Mandela University" during the more than two decades that Mandela has been imprisoned there. Fellow prisoners like poet Dennis Brutus, economist Lulu Chiba, and Philip Matthews describe how Mandela and the ANC leadership continued the struggle inside prison walls.

Part 4 - Mandela's Release and the Future -Clergy like the Rev. Beyers Naude, Pius Langa (head of the National Association of Democratic Lawyers in South Africa), Aubrey Mokcena (co-founder of the United Democratic Front) and others discuss the influence and legacy of Mandela. Produced by Sandra Rattley

Saturday October 28 9:30 PM

FUND DRIVE SPECIAL: REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS-A review of the current state of the legal/philosophical controversy, including highlights from Pacifica Radio's coverage of last April's Pro-choice Rally in Washington DC, sponsored by the National Organization for Women.

Also included the Pacifica 40th Anniversary edition of Me and my Shadow, an award-winning documentary on investigations of the political left by the U.S. government, and A Look at Watergate.

Thanksgiving Weekend

THE GRAPES OF WRATH-In hard times, the banks and big business absorbed the small farms, and the families who lived on them hit the road to California in search of a new home and livelihood.. only to find a world of greed and cynicism that leaves them impoverished, suffering and divided. This story sounds like the headlines of 1989, but it's also the human story told with extraordinary skill by Nobel prize winner John Steinbeck in The Grapes of Wrath, an American classic which is 50 years old this year. To celebrate this golden anniversary, KPFK will broadcast the complete text of the novel (by permission of Viking Press) with the voices of celebrity readers. Music and documentaries on the creation of The Grapes of Wrath (much of which is based on actual events of the time), the Depression and current issues of homelessness in the United States will complement the reading. Produced by Cindy Friedman and John Chartrand

KPFK Station Board

The next Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, October 3 at 7:30 PM at the Black Employees Association, 5462 Crenshaw Blvd. (near Slauson).

The KPFK Station Board Membership Drive is going on now! We are looking for representatives from the various diverse ethnic communities within our signal area, to be liaisons between your community and KPFK. Stop by the station and fill out an application today, or call (818) 985-2711 for more information.

The Board is planning to sponsor performances of a play titled At Ground Level: At Home in Central America. It's tentatively scheduled for a run from October 26-29. Time and place will be announced. Stay tuned to 90.7 FM for further information on this work, which is produced by Candice Corrigan. If you'd like to help out on the production, which needs a theatre space, technical and stage managing services and a video tape crew, please contact Ms. Corrigan at (213) 452-3950.

In other words, your typical Sunday morning church service. Also featuring, from Portugal, Fernando Machado Soares with Le Fade de Coimbra. Both CDs are distributed by Harmonia Mundi. NELSON MANDELA: ONE OF AFRICA'S NOBLEST SONS-An encore presentation of Pacifica's oral history of Mandela's life and the anti-apartheid struggle.
Part 3: Life in Prison, Winnie and the Mandela Family -Robben Island Prison has been described as "Mandela University" during the more than two decades that Mandela has been imprisoned there. He turned the correctional facility into an institution of higher learning, insisting that all prisoners should have a decent education. Fellow prisoners like poet Dennis Brutus, economist Lulu Chiba, and Philip Matthews describe how Mandela and the ANC leadership continued the struggle inside prison walls. Meanwhile, Winnie Mandela and her daughters describe how the white minority government turns its energy to them since Nelson Mandela has been in prison. The family describes the continuous police harassment, jailings and bannings. Other activists and clergy describe events in South Africa since Mandela's imprisonment, including the Soweto riots of June, 1976, and subsequent states of emergency in that country.
Part 4: Mandela's Release and the Future -Clergy like the Rev. Beyers Naude, Plus Langa (head of the National Association of Democratic Lawyers in South Africa), Aubrey Mokoena (co-founder of the United Democratic Front) and others discuss the influence and legacy of Mandela. They describe him as a symbol, but also as a leader whom the country desperately needs. Many speculate about the release of Mandela, when it will come, under what circumstances, and what has been holding it up. Winnie Mandela, Albertina Sisulu and Oliver Tambo also talk about the future and respond to charges by the South African government that the anti-apartheid movement is communist or communist-inspired. Produced by Sandra Ratley

THE GRAPES OF WRATH

In hard times, the banks and big business absorbed the small farms, and the families who lived on them hit the road to California in search of a new home and livelihood...only to find a world of greed and cynicism that leaves them impoverished, suffering and divided. This story sounds like the headlines of 1989, but it's also the human story told with extraordinary skill by Nobel prize winner John Steinbeck in The Grapes of Wrath, an American classic which is 50 years old this year

To celebrate this golden anniversary, KPFK will broadcast the complete text of the novel (by permission of Viking Press) with the voices of celebrity readers. In addition to those pictured here, our readers include Margaret Avery, Peter Bonerz, Frank Campanella, Steven Keats, William Schallert, Rita Taggart and Haskell Wexler. Music and documentanes on the creation of The Grapes of Wrath (much of which is based on actual events of the time), the Depression and current issues of homelessness in the United States will complement the reading. Several of the documentaries are being produced specifically to premier this weekend. Produced by Cindy Friedman and John Chartrand.
